CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Association shall be called THE BAR ASSOCIATION OF THE COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX. Name.

ARTICLE II.

This Association is established to promote social intercourse and good-fellowship among the members of the Bar; to revive and perpetuate its traditions; to encourage a more profound study of the law; to insure conformity to a high standard of professional duty; to secure wise and prevent unwise legislation, and generally to aid the people in obtaining right and justice completely and without any denial, promptly and without delay, conformably to the laws. Purposes.

ARTICLE III.

Any member of the Bar residing or practising law in Middlesex County, and recommended by the Committee on Admissions, may after being elected by vote of the Council or of the Association as herein provided, become a member of the Association by subscribing his name to this Constitution and paying the admission fee. The vote shall be taken by ballot at a meeting held upon notice, giving the candidate's name and showing that the question Membership.

of his election is to be brought before the meeting. If taken at a meeting of the Council, an affirmative vote by every member present shall be necessary for an election; but if at a meeting of the Association, an ordinary vote shall elect, unless the negative votes amount to one for every five votes cast. If not elected when voted for at a meeting of the Council, the candidate shall not stand rejected, but the question of his admission shall be determined by the Association.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

Honorary Members.

Any judge of the Supreme, Superior or Probate and Insolvency Court, or of any United States Court, residing in the County of Middlesex, and any member of this Association who may hereafter be appointed to the bench of either of said courts, shall be, while he shall hold said office, an honorary member of this Association, and shall be entitled to all its privileges, except that of voting, and shall be exempt from payment of dues.

ARTICLE IV.

Officers.

SECTION 1.—The officers of this Association shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Secretary, and a Council of fifteen elective members. The President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be members of the Council *ex officio*s.

Election of Officers and Council.

SECT. 2.—The President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be elected at the first and each succeeding annual meeting of the Association. At the first meeting of the Association, a Council of fifteen members shall be chosen, five to serve for a period of one year, five for a period of two years, and five for a period of three years; and thereafter at each annual meeting five members of the Council shall be chosen to serve for a period of three years.

THE COUNCIL.

SECT. 3.—Subject, and without prejudice, to the powers hereinafter reserved to the general meetings of the Association, the Council shall have the sole and entire management of the Association, and of the income and property thereof; and shall have the sole and exclusive right of nominating and appointing and reappointing such assistants, agents, and servants as they may deem necessary or useful to the Association, and of removing them if they shall think fit, and shall prescribe their respective duties.

The Council
—its general powers.

The Council shall have the power, upon the report of the Grievance Committee, to cause proceedings to be instituted in court, in the name of the Association, for the removal from the Bar of any member thereof for any deceit, malpractice, or other gross misconduct.

The Council may from time to time make regulations for conducting the proceedings of its meetings.

They may suspend any member of the Association from the exercise of all rights and privileges of membership during any period, not extending beyond the next meeting of the Association, for any cause which shall, in their opinion, render such suspension necessary or expedient; provided at least ten members of the or of Council.

Council are present at the meeting at which such suspension shall be voted, and that two-thirds of such members present consent thereto. The Council may, in like manner, and by like vote, suspend any member of their body from acting in his office; and whenever such suspension of a member of the Council shall have occurred, a special meeting of the Association shall immediately be called, to be held within ten days thereafter, which meeting shall have full power to remove from office the member so suspended, if it shall be deemed expedient, or otherwise to act under the circumstances as may be deemed fit.

POWERS RESERVED TO THE ASSOCIATION.

Powers of Association.

SECT. 4.—The power to make, alter, or amend the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association; to fill vacancies in the Council; to regulate the conditions of membership in the Association; and the removal or expulsion therefrom shall not be exercised by the Council, but only by the Association, at a meeting the notice for which shall contain a statement of such intended action, and the Association may also instruct or overrule the Council by a vote or votes duly passed, in regard to any matter which may be undertaken by the Council.

QUORUM OF COUNCIL.

Quorum of Council.

SECT. 5.—Except as provided in Section 3 of this article, five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECT. 6.—There shall be the following Standing Committees of the Council, which shall also be deemed to be Committees of the Association. Standing Committees.

1st. An Executive Committee of five members, which shall include the President, Treasurer, and Secretary, ex officiis, and two other members of the Council.

The President of the Association shall, ex officio, be chairman of the Executive Committee.

2d. A Committee on Admissions, consisting of five members.

3d. A Committee on Grievances, consisting of five members.

4th. A Committee on the Amendment of the Law, consisting of three members.

5th. A Library Committee, consisting of three members.

All Standing Committees shall be selected and appointed and all vacancies therein filled, by the President.

POWERS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECT. 7.—Each Standing Committee shall be responsible to the Council, and may be directed by vote of the Council, subject, however, to the vote of the Association. Powers of Standing Committees.

I. Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall have charge of all the property of the Association, and shall perform such Executive.

other duties as may be imposed upon it by the vote of the Council or the Association.

II. Committee on Admissions.

Admissions.

The Committee on Admissions shall consider any application made by any person to be admitted a member of the Association, and make report thereon at any meeting of the Council or of the Association. The candidates against whom there shall be three negative votes in the Committee shall not be recommended for admission.

III. Committee on Grievances.

Grievances.

The Committee on Grievances shall have charge of the hearing of all complaints which may be made on matters affecting the interest of the legal profession, and the practice of the law and the administration of justice, and shall report the same to the Council, with such recommendations as they may deem advisable; and said Committee shall, on behalf of the Association, institute and carry on such proceedings against offenders, whether members of this Association or not, and to such extent as the Council of the Association may order, and shall employ suitable counsel or agents for such purposes, the cost of such proceedings to be paid by the Treasurer on the written order of the chairman or acting chairman of this Committee.

IV. Committee on the Amendment of the Law.

Amendment of the Law.

The Committee on the Amendment of the Law shall be charged with the duty of attending to all proposed changes in the laws relating to the administration of justice, and of recommending such as, in their opinion, may be entitled to the favorable notice of this Association.

It shall, if possible, provide yearly for having submitted to it, as soon as presented, the first drafts of all such bills as may be referred to the Judiciary Committee of either house of the Legislature or General Court of Massachusetts.

It may, by the consent of the Council, represent the Association before legislative committees in any matter relating to the administration of justice, and, by the consent of the Council delegate said power to whomsoever may be selected by this Committee.

V. Library Committee.

The Library Committee shall have the oversight of the library and headquarters of the Association, including the duty of providing books, magazines, etc., and of appointing and removing necessary employees, and fixing their compensation, and making all needful regulations for the care and use of the library and headquarters. Library.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

SECT. 8.—Regular meetings of the Council shall be held quarterly at such time and place as the Council may determine. The President may call special meetings. Meetings of Council.

SECT. 9.—The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Association and of the Council, and shall make a Duties of Secretary.

record of the proceedings and shall keep all the records and files of the Association and of the Council in his own custody during his continuance in office, and shall not exhibit them to any person not a member of the Association; and on his ceasing to be Secretary, shall deliver them to his successor in office.

Duties of Treasurer.

SECT. 10.—The Treasurer shall collect, receive and hold all money belonging to the Association, and shall disburse only on the written order of the chairman or acting chairman of the Executive Committee, or of the Committee on Grievances, as before provided. The Treasurer shall make report of his doings, and of all the money on hand, at the annual meeting of the Association.

ARTICLE V.

Annual Meetings of the Association.

The annual meeting of this Association shall be held at the Court House in Cambridge on the second Monday of December in each year, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Special Meetings.

Special meetings may be called by order of the President at any time, and shall be called at any time upon the written request of ten members of the Association, which request shall be addressed to the Secretary. At such special meetings no business shall be transacted except such as shall be specified in the call. A notice of the annual meeting and notices of all special meetings, containing a statement of the business to be acted upon, shall be sent by the Secretary to each member of the Association, at least five days before the day fixed for said meeting.

Notice of Meetings.

At any meeting ten members shall constitute a quorum. Quorum at Meetings.

ARTICLE VI.

The admission fee shall be five dollars, to be paid on signing the Constitution, and within thirty days after date of election. The annual dues shall be two dollars and fifty cents, payable on the first day of May in each year. Admission Fee and Annual Dues,

Any member in default in paying his dues or any assessment made as herein provided, may be discontinued as a member of the Association by vote of the Council, after thirty days' notice by the Treasurer, unless excused by order of the Executive Committee. and default in payment thereof.

ARTICLE VII.

The Association may, by vote, direct the President to reprimand any member, or may suspend or expel any member from the Association, for misconduct in his relations to the Association, or in his profession, on conviction thereof, in such manner as may be prescribed by the By-Laws. The Association may also, by vote, direct the President to cause proceedings to be instituted in court for the removal from the Bar of any member thereof for deceit, malpractice, or other gross misconduct, but not until an investigation has been made by some committee and a report made to the Association. Reprimanding, suspending or expelling a member.

The disbarment of any member shall, ipso facto, work his expulsion from the Association. Proceedings for disbarment.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Association may, at any meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, make, alter, or amend Amendment of By-Laws or Constitution.

any By-Laws for its government, or may amend the Constitution, provided that no proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be finally acted on by the meeting at which it was first proposed, unless at some regular adjournment thereof, held more than seven days from the time of the original meeting.

BY-LAWS.

I. At each meeting of the Association the order of business shall be as follows:— Order of Business.

First.—Reading of the records of the preceding meeting.

Second.—Reports of Standing Committees.

Third.—Elections.

Fourth.—Reports of Special Committees.

Fifth.—Miscellaneous.

This order of business may be changed by vote of a majority of the members present.

II. The Committee on Admissions, in recommending candidates to the Association for admission, shall deposit with the Secretary, for the use of the members of the Association, a sufficient number of printed ballots containing the names of all candidates recommended, and in such form that the word Yes or the word No can be written against each name; and no ballots for any candidates for admission shall be counted, except those which have on them the word Yes or No or some equivalent words; those having Yes being counted in the affirmative, and those having No in the negative, and those having both Yes and No rejected. Recommending candidates. Balloting on candidates.

The Secretary shall notify immediately of his election any person elected. Notice of Election.

Complaints against members of Association or of Bar.

III. Complaints charging misconduct against members of the Association, or against members of the Bar not members of the Association, shall not be presented to the Association.

Committee on Grievances—

All charges against any member of the Bar practising in Middlesex County shall be referred to the Committee on Grievances, and said Committee, after such hearing thereon as they shall deem expedient, shall report the facts and their recommendations thereon to the Council, and shall thereupon institute such proceedings against offenders as said Council may order.

its actions,

its records,

its proceedings,

The Committee on Grievances shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall not be shown to any person not a member of the Association; except that any member of the Bar not a member of the Association shall be entitled to an examination of any proceedings of the Committee affecting him. The Committee on Grievances may refer all complaints for a hearing or investigation to a sub-committee of not less than two persons, who shall report to the full Committee. All meetings of the Committee on Grievances and of the Association shall be private.

and cost of the same.

The cost of all proceedings before the Committee on Grievances shall be paid by the Treasurer, on the order of the chairman of the Committee on Grievances.

Collection of dues and assessments.

IV. The Treasurer shall collect all moneys due the Association, and shall demand the payment of the annual dues, or of any assessments, within thirty days after such dues or assessments are payable, and shall make report to the Association of the names of all members who have neglected for thirty days after demand to pay the same.

V. At every annual meeting of the Association an Auditing Committee shall be appointed, to whom all reports of the Treasurer shall be referred before being acted upon.
